“ My beautiful, beautiful neighbor, friend, and second mom to me and my children. We will miss you immensely. I love you Gina and you will forever be etched in my heart. We bounded with such faith and love and that is all the anchor that Christ instilled within our hearts. You lead me in your advice and in prayers, you were a confidant and a genuine good hearted person. You were the village that helped me raise my children whenever we needed something, haircuts, hairdos, fixing the mishaps of my own attempts at cutting my hair, you always made me feel beautiful... and those runs to Walmart for arts and crafts or simply to DQ to grab a chocolate covered kids cone to lift up our spirits. I will hold onto our last conversation and forever cherish the I LOVE YOU'S that we exchanged right before we hung up the phone. Rest easy, beautiful one. May perpetual light shine upon you always. +++

*Love Always,
