My mother we were always together, life has never been the same without you. You were the Rock of our family, keeping us together and teaching us what the Gift of Family meant. I hold you in my heart forever! You were the best mother in the world . I was Bless to be so close to you on this earth and I continue to feel your presence as you walk beside me everyday of my life. I hope to be the best mother and grandmother to my children as you were, a Beautiful loving example to me. #9
