

Virginia Ruth Mollere

August 8, 1930 - March 3, 2026

Virginia Ruth Mollere, born August 8, 1930, in Taylor, Texas, passed away at her home on March 3, 2026, surrounded by the love and comfort of her family.

Virginia lived a life full of beauty, faith, laughter, creativity, and devotion. She was the beloved wife of Lawrence Mollere and was faithful to her husband, her family, and the Lord throughout her life. To know Virginia was to know warmth, generosity, and joy. She was fashionable, beautiful, funny, and full of life. She had a magnanimous personality that drew people in, and she made everyone feel welcome the moment they stepped through her door.

Virginia wore many hats in her lifetime. She was a talented seamstress and dressmaker, a ceramic teacher and artist, and a hardworking partner alongside her husband in their grocery store. Through her work, her creativity, and her example, she became a well-known and respected figure to many. More than any title, though, she was a mother to so many and a friend to all.

Her story began humbly in Taylor, Texas, where she often recalled being dragged through the cotton fields on a potato sack. From those beginnings, she built a remarkable life marked by hard work, resilience, and love. She shared her creativity and knowledge of crafts freely with others, and she found joy in life's simple and special moments alike—watching movies snuggled on the couch with family, winning at the casino, and setting off on just about any adventure she could catch a ride to.

Virginia was truly the life of the party. From prom dinners to turkey feasts, she loved bringing people together. Stories are still told around the table of her nights at the dancehall with family and friends. She cared deeply for everyone who entered her home, always making sure they were fed, loved, and looked after. In true Virginia fashion, she even trained her family to bring sweet treats to every doctor's appointment—a small but memorable reflection of her thoughtful and loving spirit.

She is survived by her daughter, Annette Mollere; her son, Mike Mollere, and his wife, Melissa; her grandchildren, Chardae Mollere-Rod, Ali & Troy Swan, Weslie & Eric Chance; her great grandchildren Kai, Reef, Reid, Majer, Wiley and Hydee; as well as many nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.

Virginia was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Lawrence Mollere; her son, Larry Mollere; her son-in-law, James Rodriguez; and her brothers, Charles Peavler, Sonny Peavler, and Harold Peavler.

Virginia's life was one of strength, grace, humor, and deep love. She leaves behind a legacy of family, creativity, hospitality, and faith that will continue to live on in all who knew her. She will be deeply missed, forever remembered, and always loved.

Visitation will be held Tuesday, March 17, from 5:00 to 8:00 PM, with a Rosary at 6:30 PM, at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South on Military Drive. The Funeral Mass will be held Wednesday at 12:00 PM at St. Margaret Mary's Church in San Antonio, followed by burial. A reception will be held afterward.

The family thanks everyone for keeping them in their thoughts and prayers during this time.

“ I remember when Mrs. Mollere would come into work at Deluxe Supermarket on South Flores. One day she was going to be enterprising. She decided that customers would really choose BIG RED if we put them in the soda water machine. She told me to take out one of the soda water products and replace with BIG RED, which I did. Customers were buying BIG RED. That experiment was short-lived though, when she was informed that the soda water machine was owned by Coca Cola and only Coca Cola products could be placed in that soda water machine. Put the original product back in the soda water machine. She was an enterprising person: always trying something once. May She Rest in Peace.
