“ My fondest memories of Virginia will be the effortless love she gave to everyone, never selfish, always loving to those around her. She is the mother everyone would be blessed to call her own. We will all miss her but it's very comforting to know she is now resting in the hand of Savior and is rejoicing with friends and family. Her presence will truly be missed.

Beautiful Auntie Virginia...it's comforting to know she's now with my Mom (her sister Zora). They were very close and each other's best friend. My deepest condolences to all her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Love, your niece, Diana
