

Vivian B. Barnette

March 19, 1940 - March 29, 2021

With great sadness, we announce the passing of beloved Vivian, a gentle soul who went to be with our Lord Jesus at her home surrounded by loving family. Vivian was preceded in death by her parents, Arleigh Beck and Dallas Bennett, whom she missed, and many family and friends.

Vivian graduated from Jefferson High School, 1959; earned Nursing degree at San Antonio College, 1962; excelled 30 years as Registered Nurse, specialty in Pediatric Nursing: worked at downtown Baptist Memorial Hospital; mid-career with Pediatric Doctors: Nau and James; completed, at adolescent psychiatric hospital.

Remembered as a good cook, joyful homemaker, accomplished seamstress, enjoyed arts and crafts and loved travels to family fishing cabin at Lake L.B.J.; camper trips to coast and exploring Texas and U.S.A. She grew up attending Jefferson Church of Christ, where she and Tom were married 50 years ago; was a member Christian Ladies Club; later memberships at Northside and ,recently, San Pedro Churches of Christ and supported Christian Heritage School.

Vivian is survived by husband of 50 years, Tom Barnette, daughters: Carrie and Bruce Ellis of Michigan; Robin and Tony Rodriguiz, grandchildren, Mia and Dallas; sister Robbie and Joe Marano, niece Marlo and Aaron Wallendorf, great-nephews, Fritz and Dietz; and many cousins, in-laws, friends.

Vivian was compassionate, creative, charitable, considerate, clever, loved and will be missed.

Family burial at Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery, April 27, Charles Johanson officiating.
