“ My beautiful sister who I will miss so very much. You were such a blessing to my family. Sharing your love and kindness with my children as they were growing up and taking the time to include them in your prayers. You also gave our mother wonderful care. I will never forget our talks about literature and religion. Rest In Peace until we meet again. Vaya con Dios querida hermana.

“ My sweet sweet grandma... I will forever cherish all the laughs we shared with one another and all the memories we have. My hearts aches today and will ache for a very long time but I know you are up in Heaven and at peace and we will be reunited one day. Until then, I love and miss you immensely.
