

W. Carl Riddell

November 13, 1925 - December 25, 2009

Wilbur Carl Riddell, beloved husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather, passed away December 25, 2009 at the age of 84. Carl was born in Chicago, IL on November 13, 1925 and was raised in Paducah, KY. He attended and graduated from Georgia Institute of Technology where he received an Engineering degree in 1948. He remained a life long member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. Carl led a long and distinguished career with George C. Vaughan & Sons of San Antonio and Kinro Inc. of Mansfield, TX. Carl achieved the highest level of his industry including Chairman of the Board and President of AAMA American Architechtural Manufacturers Association. Carl is survived by his beloved wife and best friend of 62 years Jeanette Briscoe Riddell. In addition, Carl is survived by daughters, Nancy Palmer and husband Don of Arlington, TX and Marcia Luce and husband Billy of College Station, TX; son Stephen Riddell of San Antonio; grandsons John and Paul Palmer, Chris, Tim, Tony and Benjie Luce; and five great grandchildren as well as brother Leslie Riddell of Mississippi. Carl was preceded in death by brother Graham Riddell and granddaughter Susan Palmer.

Tribute Wall

RW

“ On behalf of the AAMA membership family and staff, please accept our heartfelt condolences.

Carl's inner strength and ever present smile will be missed greatly. He will always be remembered for his outstanding dedication and contributions to t

Rich Walker - December 29, 2009 at 12:00 AM

SV

“ Please accept the sincere condolences of Ingrid and Siggie Valentin. Carl and myself have worked together for many years in the AAMA Association and shared in many leadership position in order to advance the goals of the fenestration industry. I will m

Siggie Valentin - December 29, 2009 at 12:00 AM

DP

“ Dear Jeanette,
While I have not seen you and Carl for many years, I assure you thst I have always had great memories of our times together. I enjoyed the many years Carl and I worked together for Geo. C. Vaughan &

Sons. I always consi

Denis C. Parker - December 28, 2009 at 12:00 AM

LF

“ "Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again and you will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy." John 16:22

We love you and miss you, Granddaddy.

Chris, April, Sarah & Faith

Luce Family - December 28, 2009 at 12:00 AM

RG

“ Carl was a great mentor and friend at the AAMA association. He will be greatly missed by all his friends in the window business from all over North America.

Condolences.

Ray G

Ray Garries - December 28, 2009 at 12:00 AM

SB

“ Aunt Jeanette and family, we were so shocked to learn of Uncle Carl's passing. To have just seen him and been with him in October. I am so glad we had that time with him. Our hearts are broken with yours. We are thinking of you and remembering you in ou

Sue Briscoe - December 27, 2009 at 12:00 AM