

Wah Cheow Sid

December 29, 1950 - March 26, 2022

Wah Cheow Sid was born on December 29, 1950 in San Antonio, TX to Bock On Sid and Hong Lun Lau. He passed away peacefully, surrounded by his loved ones on March 26, 2022 in his hometown of San Antonio.

Wah had an entrepreneurial spirit at an early age. He helped his parents open their family restaurant “The Golden Dragon” on Hillcrest on September 15, 1972, which was later relocated to Babcock and Callaghan. During the 15 years at “The Golden Dragon”, Wah worked tirelessly and with passion to serve his patrons delicious Chinese food and deliver a great dining experience.

After the restaurant closed its doors in 1987, he worked various occupations before beginning his career at the Bexar County Courthouse. During his tenure at the Bexar County Courthouse, Wah worked in the Deed and Vital Records, Plats, and the Probate department. He spent over twenty years assisting attorneys, judges, and his colleagues before retiring in May 2011. Wah’s retirement from the Bexar County Courthouse allowed him to focus on his pastimes. His pastimes included bowling, dining out with family and friends, listening to Rock ‘n’ Roll (especially Elvis Presley, Buddy Holly, Ricky Nelson, Roy Orbison), watching reruns of his favorite television shows, maintaining his 1978 and 1979 Cadillac Coupe deVilles, and cheering for his beloved San Antonio Spurs.

Wah is survived by his loving wife of 46 years, Olivia Chow Sid; son, Danny Ng (daughter-in-law, Hema); daughters, Catherine Sid and Amy Saideepane

(son-in-law, Jerry); sister, Lai Quock (brother-in-law, Billy); brother, Bock Sid; granddaughter, Avery Ng; and numerous nephews, nieces, and cousins.

Thank you to his medical team at Methodist Specialty and Transplant and Methodist Main, Dr. Jessica Pierce, Fresenius Medical Care Locke Hill, and the EMS Direct team who went above and beyond to care for him.

“ Many knew him from the Bexar County Court House; however, there are a lot of us out here who loved eating at his restaurant The Golden Dragon. So friendly and courteous and.....the food was wonderful.

“ As as Probate attorney, I often had the pleasure of working with Wah in the Bexar County Probate Office. When I saw his picture today, his smile took me back all those years ago when I would walk into the Probate Clerk's office and he would delightfully call out my name with that big smile. I send the family my most sincere condolences and the assurance that Wah Sid was a positive influence in my life. I will continue to say his name.

I never met Wah in person. However, as a legal assistant who worked for two San Antonio probate attorneys, I talked with him many times from 1998 on until he retired from the Bexar County Probate Clerk's office. He frequently answered the phone and was always a great help with any problem. Wah's friendliness, sense of humor and positive attitude made him unforgettable. I've thought of him numerous times over the years and wondered how he was doing. My condolences to his family for their loss.
