May 2, 1920 - June 24, 2008

Hayden

Mr. Waldo J. Hayden, 88, was born in Fairview, southeast of San Antonio, on May 2, 1920 and went to be with the Lord on June 24, 2008. His parents were Mr. and Mrs. John Hayden. Mr. Hayden is survived by his loving wife, Juanita. They were married for 64 years. Mr. Hayden is also survived by three children, sons John Hayden of Kenedy, Texas and Bill Hayden of Frisco, Texas and a daughter, Jonita Mooney of Carrollton, Texas. He is also survived by eight grandchildren and twelve great grandchildren. Mr. Hayden worked for VIA in San Antonio for 22 years, retiring in 1982. He was also a member of Bellaire Baptist Church and the Masonic Lodge of San Antonio. In his early career, he worked in Panama between 1942 and 1945 during the war. He and Mrs. Hayden were living in Carrollton, Texas at the time of his death. He passed away after a short illness. Mr. Hayden is remembered for his love and generosity to family and friends. Many received the gifts of his labor from his farm southeast of San Antonio. This included bountiful supplies of fresh vegetables, fruit from the fruit trees, venison and turkey. His favorite pastimes were fishing on the coast at Rockport, Texas and hunting on the farm.

“ *Billy,
I am sorry to hear about your Dad.*

My family prays for you in this time of grief. My thoughts race back in time. Your father and family were there when I needed help after my Dad passed. I will never forget his giving toward me and my family
