Walter "Gary" Coffey was born to Cyrus and Gladys Gary Coffey on August 9, 1928, in San Antonio, Texas. Gary, as he was known to everyone that knew him, had a humbleness and kindness that we all strive to have. Gary had an incredible journey through life. He served with the Navy in the final stages of WWII, after graduating from Edgewood High School. He then attended Trinity University and received a Bachelor's of Science degree and soon went to work for the Joint Electronic Warfare Command Center on Security Hill located between Kelly and Lackland AFB's. Always a thirst for knowledge, Gary received a Master's Degree from UTSA soon after it opened, just because he thought it would be fun. He retired from his position as Electronic Security Command Specialist in 1988.
