

Walter Powell Gray

November 12, 1931 - January 1, 2007

Walter Powell Gray died suddenly on Monday, January 1, 2007. He was born November 12, 1931 in San Antonio, Texas, where he has lived all of his life. After graduating from Thomas Jefferson High School, he attended The University of Texas in Austin, and later earned his law degree from St. Mary's University. Walter Powell practiced law for 52 years, and is known as an honorable, decent, ethical man. He will be greatly missed by his family, many friends, clients, and others. He is survived by his loving wife of 50 years, Patricia Sue, their three sons, George Powell, John Mitchell, Walter Scott and their families, his brother, George M. Gray, brother-in-law and wife, Dr. John and Mary Armstrong, and four grandchildren. Memorial service will be at 12:00 pm Saturday, January 6, 2007 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North.

“ Pat,
It was obvious to me how great is the respect for Walter and your family by the large crowd at the memorial service. His obvious sense of humor is reflected in his sons, and that is a true gift to humanity. Although I did not know Walter persona
