

Walter Lagerwey

March 7, 1922 - August 18, 2011

LAGERWEY

Walter Lagerwey, age 89, died on August 18, 2011 at Live Oak TX of natural causes. He was born on March 7, 1922 in Grand Rapids MI to Arie and Sophia Lagerwey. Walter was preceded in death by three siblings, Bernard Laraway, Cora Zwart, and Jean Vander Schaaf. He is survived by his wife, Jane E. Lagerwey; children, Donald W. Lagerwey, Christine Rago, Steven Lagerwey, Mark Lagerwey, Victoria Doty and Dennis Mix; 23 grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren and 2 great-great-grandchildren; siblings, Alice Dewitte of Mesa AZ and Christine Gobble of San Clemente CA. Walter graduated from Hoover High School, Glendale CA and served in the United States Navy during WWII. He worked for 50 years as an engineer for Bendix/Allied Signal/Honeywell International and as a result had resided in Glendale CA, Canyon Country CA, Crystal Springs MS and Live Oak TX. Walter was a member of the Presbyterian PCA Church and was an Elder Emeritus. He enjoyed hobbies of golf, tennis, model airplanes and water color painting.

Service

A Graveside Service will begin at 10:30 AM on Tuesday, August 23, 2011 at Mission Retama Cemetery, San Antonio TX 78154. A Celebration of Life will be held at Mr. and Mrs. Donald Doty, 9531 Millers Ridge, San Antonio 78239.

Tribute Wall

AT

“ We are sorry for your loss, but know that Mr. Walt has gone from faith into sight. Glory to to God. We think and pray for you often.
Love,
The Taylors

---

Allyn and Resie Taylor - August 29, 2011 at 12:00 AM

KH

“ Walt was an unique person, one who loved and was loved. He will be greatly missed. Janie, our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family through this difficult time. We love and miss you both.

---

Keith and Beverly Hood - August 27, 2011 at 12:00 AM