“ Valana, I can see your sweet mom in you. While I never met Wanda personally, I feel like I know her from the stories and memories you shared. Be comforted in knowing you loved and cared for her until the very end and she will live in your heart for always. There will be times when you will feel the void more than others. Remember her just like she looks in this picture...her beautiful smile. Treasure the memories and incorporate her memory when creating new ones.

Brandy, my condolences on the loss of your Mom. I know from what Valana has shared how precious she was and will continue to be for you and your family.

Our hearts are with you, Margie Monsegur and Family
