

Wanda Joyce Strader

November 7, 1936 - November 16, 2024

Wanda Joyce Strader went to be with our Lord on Saturday, November 16, 2024, at the age of 88. She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Robert L. Strader, parents Clayton Thomas and Vica Nora Willis, brother Edward Willis, and great-granddaughter Credence Lovelace.

She is survived by two daughters: Starla Lovelace (Timothy) and Kim Griffith (Don); five grandchildren: Ryan Lovelace (Lacy), Clayton Lovelace (Amy), Nicole Marais (Eddie), Nicholas Lovelace (Jeana), and Chad Griffith; ten great-grandchildren: Bailey & Allison Lovelace, Amelia & Nora Marais, Olivia & Luke Lovelace, Granger Lovelace, and Kade, Aislee & Kash Griffith. She is also survived by her brother Weldon Willis (Barbara), sister Linda Wright (Larry) as well as a host of nieces, nephews and other family members.

Wanda Joyce was born at home in San Perlita, Texas November 7, 1936. She graduated from San Perlita High School in 1954 where she earned honors that included FFA Sweetheart and Football Sweetheart. She also served as a cheerleader. She worked as a bank teller in Raymondville and San Antonio in her earlier years, but gave that up to pursue her true passion of being a homemaker. She maintained a beautiful and loving home for her husband and daughters. Much like her mother, Wanda Joyce loved to sew and was an excellent seamstress.

We honor and remember her as an exceptional Christian whose life was a testament to her deep love for Jesus. She attended Faith Tabernacle (also known as The Way Church) in Lakehills, Texas. She was a lover of the Word of God, as well as a prayer warrior who believed in the power of prayer. Her prayers were for everyone she met to know and follow Jesus as their Lord and Savior. She will be greatly missed by her family, church family, and friends.
