

Wanda Rae Thompson

April 19, 1934 - May 28, 2017

On 28 May 2017 at two twenty one in the afternoon Wanda Rae Young Thompson passed away at the age of eighty three. Her lengthy battle with breast cancer of twenty four years is evidence of her steadfast determination and commitment. Nothing deterred her from being a loving wife and nurturing mother/grandmother/great grandmother. Her presence, pride and dignity were felt by all who knew her. Never a day went by that she did not look her best. Wanda is survived by her loving husband of sixty six years, Hubbard Thompson, her daughter Elaine Fallin, her son Richard David Thompson. In addition there are five granddaughters Heather Cox, Desi Vaughn, Cameo Grome, Cassidi Thompson and Gabriela Thompson. There are four great grandbabies Madelyn Cox, Abigail Cox, Sparrow Raynes, and Jaxson Miller. Close relatives dear to her heart Bill Gatewood, Jack Gatewood and Yvonne Harrington. From this day forward though she is no longer with us we can rest assured that she is resting peacefully without pain in heaven. Her memory will forever reside in our hearts.

“ In only four days, you will have been gone six months but it feels like yesterday. I miss you Grandma. My heart still aches and the world feels empty without your light but I know you are with us in every redbird and each rainbow. I love you more than you ever knew.

“ *Dear Mr. Thompson, Elaine and Rick,
I have fond memories of our families as neighbors and life time friends. Whenever Wanda and Hubbard and Ann and Lee got together there was always so much laughter and good times. Mrs. Thompson was one classy lady and such a good friend to my mom. They certainly enjoyed each other's company and many, many fun conversations.
She will be greatly missed! I pray for God's peace for you all during this time.
Love, Linda Conley Sweeney*
