

Warner Lee Van Horn

August 3, 1932 - February 19, 2025

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Warner (W.L.) Van Horn, who left this world at the age of 92 on February 19, 2025.

Warner was a loving husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and a beloved member of his community.

Warner was born into a family that instilled in him a strong sense of duty and service. He devoted over 30 years to the San Antonio Police Department, where he became known for his dedication, integrity, and compassion.

He is survived by his loving wife of 74 years, Gloria Ann Van Horn; daughter Debi Van Horn; and daughter-in-law, Gayle Van Horn. Warner's legacy continues through his grandchildren: Loyd Van Horn (Megan), Brandi Chaput (Jason), and Jayme Deason (Eric), as well as his five cherished great-grandchildren: Austin Chaput, Taylor Chaput, Blake Deason, Jacob Chaput, and Caroline Deason. His love for his family was boundless, and he found great joy in their accomplishments and moments together. Warner was preceded in death by his son, William Larry Van Horn, his parents Whit Van Horn and Iris (Van Horn) Brooks and his brothers and sister.

A man of quiet strength and unshakable faith, Warner's legacy of love, service, and devotion will live on in the hearts of his family and all those who knew him.

A viewing will be held on Monday March 3, 2025 at Mission Park North from 12:00pm-2:00pm for family and friends to gather and honor the remarkable man he was with a gravesite service to follow at 2:30pm.

“ Van Horn was a remarkable guy who always reached his hand shake and a big smile to greet us. My husband Vernon worked for yrs at the PD. I also had the pleasure of working with him and his family and beautiful wife Gloria as a gunsmith when I was an Active Realtor. We send our condolences to Gloria and the extended family. Kathy and Vernon Sowell. May this exemplary man and friend rest in Peace until we meet again 🙏
