

Warren Jardine

November 3, 1920 - April 7, 2007

Warren C. Jardine passed into his Lord's hands on April 7, 2007 at the age of 86 years. He was preceded in death by his wife, Helen Cravens Jardine, and step-daughter Marilyn Stewart. He is survived by his step-daughter, Janie Elizabeth Cravens, step-son, Bill Cravens and wife Dava. Grandchildren: Kenneth Stewart and Richard French, Jason Stewart, Jon Coyle and Sabrina Morrissey, Davin Cravens, Derek Cravens, Ross Cravens, Joy Elizabeth Cravens, great granddaughter Maeve Coyle, and a host of friends from Astro Bowling and Shearer Hills Baptist Church. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Shearer Hills Baptist Church, 12615 San Pedro, San Antonio, Tx., 78232.

Tribute Wall

MS

“ We are truly saddened by Warren's departure. We were very fortunate to have known him and fellowshiped with him. We bowled at Astro Sr. league. He was a happy person, always encouraging, smiling frequently, never complaining, a fine Christian man. Our f

Max and Josie Seidenschur - April 25, 2007 at 12:00 AM

AK

“ I am sorry I never got to meet Warren. His gentle smile and the stories Kenneth tells make me remember my father, who also died suddenly and unexpectedly. I cherish the memories of his life that grow ever more vivid with each passing year, and I know yo

Amy King - April 09, 2007 at 12:00 AM

JJ

“ Warren was a great fella always had a smile on his face and urged me on to sometime being the great bowler I could be. loved him very much and will miss him very much.

Jane Jones - April 09, 2007 at 12:00 AM

OB

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family during this time. Warren was a faithful and fellow Christian in our department at Shearer Hills Baptist Church and we will miss him.

Opal Clark & Catherine Bruner - April 09, 2007 at 12:00 AM

EA

“ I am going to miss you around the bowling lanes. You were always smileing and happy. Sorry to lose a great person. But there is alot of our bowling buddies where you are so have a great time. Your bowling buddy. Ellie.

Ellie Addis - April 08, 2007 at 12:00 AM

MC

“ I will always remember how happy you made Aunt Helen and how kind you were. Dad always enjoyed bowling with you, you were a good friend to him. You always had a smile on your face and I will miss you.

Mary McCann Cardwell - April 08, 2007 at 12:00 AM