“ I remember meeting Wayne and Loubelle through my parents, Alita and Fred Cooper and enjoyed knowing them when I joined Oak Hills Presbyterian Church in the early 90's. One special memory was seeing Wayne carrying Olympic Torch in Leon Valley.

Another special time was when Wayne and I were in a bidding war at a church event. He won but he and Loubelle took Steve and me to the restaurant I lost the bidding on. Wonderful generosity.

God bless Loubelle and all the family and know Wayne is resting in peace with my folks and Steve.
