

Wilda Alberta Wade Dye

December 30, 1928 - January 28, 2012

Wilda Alberta Wade Dye passed away January 28, 2012, at the age of 83 in San Antonio, Texas. Wilda was born December 30, 1928, to John Wesley Wade, Sr. and Lillie Mae Crowell. Wilda was a very devoted and loving wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She always wanted to be surrounded by her family and she always put them first. Early on she enjoyed such activities as bowling, fishing, ceramics as well as arts and crafts. Wilda was known for her peach cobbler which was the standard choice of her grandchildren for their birthday celebrations as well as her holiday southern fruit cakes. She has shared these recipes along with many others with her children, grandchildren and nieces and nephews to carry on her legacy. Wilda was preceded in death by her parents and her brothers; Lawrence Wade, Wesley Wade; sisters; Gwen Wuneburger, Harriet McCulloch and Oriel Moore. Wilda is survived by her children, Leo Dye, Jr. and wife Johanna, Audrey Rogers and husband Monty and James Dye. Grandchildren: Chuck Rogers, Lori Rogers, Brent Dye and wife Cindy, Ross Dye and Melinda Young, Aaron Dye, Jamie Music and husband Chris. She has nine great grandchildren; Angela and Terra Rogers, Madison Dye, Bayleigh and Jordan Music, Parker and Payton Tyler, Makayla Young, Richard Barker and many wonderful nieces and nephews in San Antonio, Spring Branch, Llano, Houston and Melrose, Minnesota. Visitation for Wilda will be Wednesday February 1, 2012 at Mission Park Funeral Chapel South. Her funeral services will be 1:00 P. M. Thursday February 2, 2012 at Mission South with interment at Mission Burial

Park South. Wilda was deeply loved by all who knew her and will be greatly missed. The family wishes to thank the South Texas Blood and Tissue Center and Dr. Allyson Harroff and the Cancer Care Centers of South Texas. In Lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the South Texas Blood and Tissue Center.
