

William Louis Armstrong III

August 21, 1926 - May 6, 2015

The world lost a good man, and our family lost its rock. William Louis Armstrong III of San Antonio, TX gently passed from this life on May 6, 2015. He has left behind a loving family, who will truly miss him, including his wife, Elizabeth Bets, daughter Susan and her husband David Middleton, son William Louis IV and his wife Rochelle, and daughter Jane and her husband Ken Heinzmann. He is also survived by grandchildren Kevin Heinzmann, Kara Lewis, Megan and Emily Osterbur, and Sarah and Matthew Middleton, as well as great-grandchildren Jillian and Quentin Heinzmann, and Addison and Aubrey Lewis.

Lou Armstrong was born in Ft. Worth, Texas in 1926. He served in the U.S. Navy from 1944-46 at the end of World War II. He attended Texas Christian University and was graduated from Southwestern University in 1950. He married the love of his life, Bets, in 1953; they celebrated their 62nd wedding anniversary this year. Lou worked for Swift and Company which was purchased by Bunge Edible Oil, from which he retired as Vice President of Sales and Marketing. He was an active member of Trinity United Methodist Church, and the Northside Lions Club.

In lieu of flowers, a contribution may be made to Trinity United Methodist Church, 6800 Wurzbach Rd., San Antonio, TX 78240 or to the Northside Lions Club Foundation, 231 W. Cypress St. #204, San Antonio, TX 78212.

Graveside Services will be held on Tuesday, May 26, 2015 at 9:30 a.m. at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery.
