“ For more than a few years I called this man Grandpa. I was the stepson of Micheal Barker. This man was decent and caring in my experience. I worked for the family business for what seemed like a while and he was always fair and honest. I have good memories of him and I do miss him. In my opinion he was an all around good man that cared deeply for his family.

“ Rodney, Lisa, Mark and all the rest of the family... Although we never got the opportunity to know your Dad as well as we would have liked, he was one of the very first to welcome us to the neighborhood when we first moved in. He always said hi and had a
