

William Charles Bennett

September 21, 1931 - August 15, 2016

Born in London, England, 84 year old Dick Bennett has entertained people worldwide. He fell in love with a Texas girl while living in Palma de Mallorca, Spain in the mid-sixties. In 1976, the married couple moved back to her home in Texas with their three children. His entire life was spent as an entertainer in the restaurant and bar industry. He eventually moved to San Antonio in the early eighties. Throughout the years, many family and friends, in addition to fans and followers, would go see him perform. He was a sure winner at every karaoke spot and "brought the house down" on many occasions. Nightly, he would surprise many a skeptics who underestimated the sharp dressed short little bald Englishman. But above all, his family was the most important part of his life. After nearly 50 years together, he was so saddened by the loss of his "Lovey", Jeri, in 2008.

He is survived by his 3 children, Alexandra Hopkins and Samantha Lasseter of San Antonio, TX, and Andrew Bennett of Austin, TX. Also, his 7 grandchildren, Taylor James Kelley, Robert Austin Lasseter, William Blake Lasseter, Jaxson Andrew Bennett, Ashton Joseph Bennett, Aisley Jae Bennett and Jett Austin Bennett. As well as his 1 great grandson, Hayden Cruz Kelley.

He will be missed by his extended family and friends from here and "across the pond". The neighborhood will never be the same at Pop's Garage
