“ I just learned that Bill died. I remember 1964-1965, Galveston, the beach, everclear, the day he joined the navy. Great memories. Him, Richie and Sherry are all gone now. RIP

“ Bill was one of my older brothers that left us too soon. We all became separated through time and mostly because of politics, which is very sad to me. But threw it all and still to this day. I love him so much and just hope he knows it.

“ I know this is very late to be posting - but I just learned of Bill's passing. Even though we never met in person, I considered Bill to be a dear friend and a fellow BOI. Rest easy dear friend!

*Rest in God's Eternal Peace.
My condolences to Bill's family. Bill was a man of God as we prayed before each meal and in public as well.
You are truly missed and forever in my heart.*

“ *Bill grew up in Galveston and started Galveston Remembered. With over 2000 members he shared pictures and stories loved by all.
Reuniting in our later years was a joy I will forever cherish. I love you my friend.
I will relish our memories until we meet again.*

It'd be great if one of Bill's family would re-activate his Galveston Remembered FB page (turning off the comments). It was filled with treasures. RIP Bill.
