

William Coleman

March 13, 1917 - November 6, 2015

William Coleman, age 98, passed away on November 6, 2015.

Being a man of few words, the words he chose to speak were important. When he spoke, we listened. He was the kind of man that always had a story to tell. No matter how well we thought we knew him, he would surprise us with something new, proving that you can know someone your whole life, but if they've lived a life full of adventure and love, there is always more to learn from them.

A devoted Christian, he was a charter member of Shearer Hills Baptist Church, where he served as a deacon; owner of San Antonio Implement Co., established by his father in 1912; and proud Army Air Corps veteran.

Preceded in death by beloved wife Frances, son Charles and grandson Justin.

Survived by daughters Mary Henry John and Martha Roberson Richard, grandchildren Courtney Hall, Kate Wright. Will Henry, Beth Van Allen, Eric Roberson, Tammy Coleman and Amy Rosentrater and 3 great grandchildren. Maria Arellano was his faithful and loving caregiver.

Visitation Wednesday, November 11, 4-6 at Mission Park North.

Memorial Service Thursday, November 12, 12 noon at Mission Park North.
Burial at Sunset Memorial Park.
