

William P. Collins

May 2, 1922 - January 19, 2008

COLLINS

William P. Collins was born in Walsh, Colorado on May 2, 1922 and passed away on January 19, 2008. Bill resided in San Antonio since 1955. He will be greeted in the next life by his wife, Ann M. Collins; his sister, Dorothy Rotz; and brothers, D.L. and Charles Collins. Bill leaves behind two loving daughters, Linda Collins Montgomery and husband, Jim of San Antonio and Karen Collins Lashley and husband Ron of Dallas; brothers, Patrick Collins and J. Calvin Collins of Colorado; granddaughters, Heather Stoner and husband, Jason of Round Rock and Leslie Arnold of San Antonio; and great-granddaughter, Peyton Stoner. A World War II Veteran Member of the Army Air Corps, he received the Distinguished Flying Cross. He loved to spend time fishing with his family and was a talented gardener who loved to share his crops with family and friends. Bill was an innovative handyman who spent numerous hours in his garage. He was always ready to lend a helping hand to family and neighbors who needed his "fix it from scratch" talent.
