“ My father is a huge fan of the Four Freshmen. I am pretty sure I saw Bill at HEB on DeZavala Road a number of years ago. I knew he lived in San Antonio. I remember thinking, "I think that's Bill Comstock. I should go say hello." And then I talked myself out of it. "What if it isn't?"
I wish I had. I grew up listening to the Freshmen. Peace to his memory.

“ Thanks to Bill Comstock for sharing his wonderful musical talents as a member of the Four Freshmen.

I had the pleasure of meeting him a number of years ago at one of the annual FF conventions. One of my highlights of the evening. He was truly a real gentleman.

His legacy will continue through the many recordings he made as a member of this award winning vocal group.
