

William "Gus" Harmon

November 17, 1947 - November 26, 2025

William "Gus" Harmon, 78, went to be with the Lord on November 26, 2025.

Gus was born on November 17, 1947 to Ruban and Nellie (Shealy) Harmon in Lexington, SC.

Gus was born and raised in South Carolina and played baseball in High School. His High School baseball team went to and won the state championship in 1964. He joined the Air Force, then worked and retired from the retail business.

Gus enjoyed watching sports, especially his two favorite teams the Astros and the Cubs, working in the yard and one of his favorite hobbies was singing karaoke. One of his favorite things to do was to sit out under the carport and socialize with his neighbors in the evenings and talking on the phone with all his friends and family. Gus loved going to church on Sunday mornings with his brother in law Lawrence. But, his greatest love was his family and grandchildren, which he was always there for them.

Gus is survived by his son Jason Wollny, grandchildren; Gianna Wollny and Paul Wollny, Sister; Vivian Simerly and brother in law Rick of Lexington, SC, Niece; Vivian Alexander and Nephews; Matthew Harmon and Craig Harmon.

He is preceded in death by his wife Lillian Harmon, parents; Ruban and Nellie Harmon and a brother; Bo Harmon Jr.

“ *In Loving Memory of Gus.
I will always cherish the way Gus loved his family, especially Gianna and Paul-with such pride and devotion.
He had a way of making everyone around him feel like family-and I am grateful to have experienced that kindness. I will miss our conversations as he always made me laugh, no matter the day. His warmth and humor will stay with me forever.*

“ My grandfather was a truly unforgettable man, the kind who could make anyone laugh without even trying. He had a rare spirit and a personality entirely his own. warm, quickwitted, and endlessly genuine. His humor could brighten any room, his presence could calm any worry, and his outlook on life made even the simplest moments feel meaningful. Growing up with him was one of the greatest gifts I've ever been given. He shaped me in ways I'll carry for the rest of my life. I am who I am because of the joy, love, and light he shared so freely. I love you forever, Papa ❤️ -Gianna
