“ I worked with Mr Bill, as we affectionately called him, for at least 20 years at Kelly AFB. He was a fine coworker and an even better helper. I used to bring goodies to about 3 different coffee clubs every Friday, which amounted to 1-2 boxes for each. I said I didn't mind picking them up but they sure needed to be out front to get them when I drove up. I could always count on Mr Bill - no matter what the weather. A finer friend and gentleman will be tough to find. Thank you Georgia for taking care of your Dad all these years. Now he's pain free and resting with your Mom. June Lawrence
