

William Robert Hodges

August 19, 1939 - May 7, 2021

William Robert Hodges joined his Lord on May 7, 2021 in San Antonio, Texas. He was born on August 19, 1939 in San Antonio, Texas to William Oscar Hodges and Lillie Pauline Hierholzer. William was preceded in death by his parents and his sister, Le Moyne Dorsey. He is survived by his beloved wife of 51 years, Nancy Hodges; daughter, Lyndsay Hodges (Maghen); nieces, Laurie Benavides (Roy), Carol Walker and Amy Maupin (Phil); and nephew, William Walker. Will; also known as Billy Boy, Willie, Uncle Billy, (and lately he would tell people, with a smile, they could call him Guillermo); enjoyed and will be remembered for his passion for volleyball and watching his daughter play or coach the game. His Tall Texas "T" Hot Rod is his legacy left behind, it was his pride and joy that he started building when he was only 19. He faithfully served his country in the Naval Reserves for 20 years and as a Civil Servant on Security Hill at Kelly AFB. His favorite response to the question of what he did for a living was "well I could tell you, but then I'd have to kill you," always said with his coy grin.

“ The coy grin and hot rod were around way back at Northside High School. Willie was neighbor and friend and MYF buddy who took me to a couple of Gear Grinder events and brought me home from TWU 60 years ago. A nice guy, nice family, with a dad who grew orchids! I last saw Willie years ago when he was still talking about moving to Boerne, where I ended up. Pleasant memories of his giving me horse mint seeds from his parents' Boerne place. My condolences to Nancy, Lyndsay, and others in his life. There's not another like him...

RIP, Willie.
