“ I just found out about my friend William. I used to work with him at Healthsmart. He was so funny and loved his sports. I loved joking with him all day. You have your work family. He was definitely one of mine. I will miss you. You are singing with the angels now Will. You are now in paradise.

“ For so many years as his next door neighbor, I /we was blessed to have know Bill, his family has and always will be a part of my family of friends.

As stated, I knew as long as Bill and his friends were gathered in his garage, I could always know who was playing what and if they were winning. I didn't need no schedule ,all I had to do was sit outside for two minutes and soon there was plenty of shouting, I knew than the Cowboys/Spurs were winning.

and to his family and friends, through Bill I got a chance to meet some of his great friends.

I/we love you all and has been and will be here for you as long as Almighty God, allows.
