“ Uncle Bill always made me feel like a million bucks. I'll never forget how smart he made me feel as a ten year old. The waiter handed him the check and he gave it to me and asked me how much to tip. I told him how much and how I calculated it. He told me I'd make an excellent accountant someday. I doubt he realized it, but that affirmation made me feel like I really was smart and I thought about it all the time.

I'm really happy Uncle Bill can be back with his brother and the rest of the family.
