

William Reyes-Beauchamp

July 5, 1927 - July 9, 2024

William Reyes-Beauchamp died on July 9, 2024, in San Antonio, Texas.

Reyes-Beauchamp is survived by his wife Rosalina and his children William, Yvette and Ruben as well as grandchildren Alicia, Omar and Ruben Javier. William and Rosalina were married for 70 years.

William was born in Puerto Rico on July 5, 1927, to Amelia Beauchamp and Manuel Reyes. Entered the service (US Army) in 1948 and retired in 1971. He proudly served in Puerto Rico, Germany, Panama, Korea, Japan, and Vietnam and in the US, he served in Pittsburg and Alabama. His rank at the time of retirement was Sergeant Major.

After his first retirement he completed his Bachelor of Arts in Education, Magna Cum Laude. From there he worked and retired as Director of Admissions for the University of Puerto Rico.

William lived a life powered by principles of excellence, tenacity, honor, faith, and persistence. On the surface William was deeply religious. However, this hides the fact that William was always actively engaged in deepening his connection to God and achieving enlightenment. Activities that transcend religiosity.

William Reyes-Beauchamp personified true love in his relationship with his wife Rosalina.
