“ WHEN I MET BILLY

I stood alone and gazed about then saw him drawing near.

He stopped up short with wrinkled brow

then asked, who do we have us here?

Its me i said, then he cocked his head smiling,

saying, you'll be my friend that is clear.

Lets go hang about and laugh out loud,

we'll live life with a smile and no fear.

For my friend Billy, a beloved boyhood friend, who I've thought of often, and will cherish always.
