

William Donald Walker

August 28, 1915 - October 15, 2007

William Donald Walker was born in Searcy, Arkansas on August 28, 1915 and passed away in Midland, Texas on October 15, 2007. He was a member of several Baptist Churches in San Antonio, where he served as a Deacon and Sunday School Teacher. He was most commonly known as “Grandpa Choo Choo” to the children in Sunday School Class, because of his ability to imitate a steam-engine train whistle. Don was also a long time umpire for the church softball league. He retired from Civil Service at Kelly Air Force Base after over forty years of service. He is preceded in death by his loving wife of 63 years, Dorothy Hull Walker, and also 5 older brothers. Donald is survived by his sons, Charles Walker and wife Sharon, David Walker and wife Linda; twin sister, Dorothy Goslin; grandchildren, Matthew Walker, Bryan David Walker, Benjamin Dōan Walker, Darla Rance, Wendy Follis, Lindsey Kaye Tubbs; 14 great grandchildren and numerous nieces, nephews and a host of other loving family members and friends.

SERVICES

A visitation will be held from 7:00 - 9:00 PM on Wednesday, October 17, 2007 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. A church service will be held at 2:00 PM on Thursday, October 18, 2007 at San Antonio First Baptist Church with interment to follow at Chapel Hill Memorial Park. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to the Alzheimer’s Association.

Tribute Wall

SH

“ We are all fortunate to have such a wonderful family and I can hear all the laughter that Uncle Donald always brought to our lives. Love, Skip

Skip Hull - October 16, 2007 at 12:00 AM

BW

“ I am sad lives will not be experiencing and influenced by Grandpa Choo Choo longer here on earth. We were all blessed to have him as long as we did. I do smile at the joy he saw when Aunt Dot greeted him and they were together again in the loving arms o

Bunny Hull Warren - October 16, 2007 at 12:00 AM