“ Thank you dad for all the wonderful memories. Thank you for all the years you stayed around waiting to meet my husband and his beautiful children. You brought so many everlasting memories, watching you work the land, spending days and nights in the country with my new family. We will take care of mom like you did in a loving and caring way for the rest of her life. I hope you will be one of my loved ones lost that will come to my bedside when it's my time. The last time I saw you, you looked so rested and peaceful like you were already enjoying your devine life. You will always be close in our hearts and our prayers every night.
