

Wilma Dunbar

December 19, 1946 - March 14, 2013

Wilma Joyce Dunbar

December 19, 1946 - March 14, 2013

No services are scheduled at this time for Wilma Joyce Dunbar, age 66, of Truth or Consequences, New Mexico, who passed away on March 14, 2013 in El Paso, Texas after a brief illness, and is now in God's care.

Wilma was born on December 19, 1946 in Corpus Christi, Texas to Joe and Mary Elnora Stapleton. Both parents and her older sister, Sarah Houston, preceded her in death.

Wilma spent 20 years proudly serving in the United States Navy, retiring as a Chief Radioman in 1991. Her tours of duty included Naval Computer and Telecommunications Area Master Station Western Pacific, Dededo, Guam; USS Yellowstone; USNS Bobo; Maritime Prepositioning Ship Squadron One; and Naval Submarine Base New London, Groton, Connecticut.

After retiring from the Navy, Wilma moved to Kerrville, Texas where she worked for the local school district as a bus driver. In 2006, she moved to Truth or Consequences, New Mexico and continued to work as a school bus driver. Wilma was a warm and caring person, a devoted mother, and a loyal friend. She had an indelible sense of humor and her many hobbies included reading, cooking, raising champion dogs, and exploring nature. Her single greatest joy and pride in life was always her son, Douglas.

Wilma is survived by her son: George Douglas Howell Dunbar of Truth or Consequences, New Mexico; Former husband: Robert Dunbar of Fitzgerald, Georgia; Sisters: Annette Stapleton of Kerrville, Texas and Mary Jo Borland of Houston, Texas.

Interment will be at Mission Burial Park South, San Antonio, Texas. A memorial for Wilma will be held at a later date to be announced.

Tribute Wall

AR

“ I will miss you always love you toa

Angelique Flores Rojas - June 05, 2024 at 09:43 AM

AS

“ In memory of my youngest sister. And all my sisters / brother who have passed on . . you will never be forgotten . . . Annette.

Annette. Stapleton - October 10, 2018 at 04:59 AM