“ Winnie Lee, Wincey, is my favorite cousin. I always loved her sweet disposition and had many thoughts of her this past week! The last I saw her was when she and Robbie June came to visit my mom, Ethlyn Sellers, in Mesquite, Texas around 2006. Dad, Mom and I visited her and Troyce at their ranch when I was a teen. We also were at their wedding and reception at Aunt Ruby and Uncle Oscar's house. I never forgot how happy and lovely she was in her wedding dress as she took off to the car, got in, and Troyce sped off! She was 13 years older than me. My prayers go out to you and family Kathy! May you rejoice that she is with the Lord and family! One day I will again see this Sweetheart that God allowed me to know and Love!! Cecil Sellers (Always known as CL growing up)

“ Winnie Lee was a loving inspiration and shining example of living fully a loving and joyful life. Whenever she met anyone, they always felt welcomed and genuinely cared for. My memories are infused with her warmth, her smile and her kindness. An angel while she was here on earth and now, with heavenly wings.

Winney, as she was known to my family, was a true bright light in our lives. She had such a wonderful, loving heart and quick wit. She brought so much joy and laughter to our lives and will be greatly missed. I will miss our phone chats and her beautiful smile. I hope my mother (her cousin Robbie June Remmers) was waiting for her at the pearly gates and that they are together now celebrating their reunion and their new home in heaven. Though I only new Mrs. Winnie for a short time. I can honestly say I came to love her. She was so often the light in a dark cloudy day. Never did a day go by that she didn't tell me how much she appreciated my hard work. You can't imagine how much that meant to me. I once gave her a Winnie the Pooh for valentines because it reminded me of her and she acted like I had just given her a pot of gold. I told her it's not much Mrs Winnie but I wanted to let you know that your a blessing in my life and I love you. That was the first time I told her I loved her. Easily said because it was easily felt. Her smile, hugs and kindness always reminded me of why I choose to work there. Mrs Winnie is all that is good in this world and now that she has gone home this world will be a bit darker. I'll miss her dearly but I rejoice in the knowledge that she is in the company of her loved ones, in the presence of angels and the Arms of Almighty God. Thank you for sharing her with me if even but for a moment I am truly the better for the knowing of such a wonderful and loving women. Much love, Cindy Villarreal
