

Winnifred K. Elo

June 1, 1913 - April 5, 2005

Winnifred K. Elo was born on June 1, 1913 in Chicago, Illinois and passed into eternal life on April 5, 2005 in San Antonio, TX. She was an active volunteer in many organizations, beginning in 1952 when she became a “Gray Lady” with the Red Cross. She oversaw some 200 volunteers at Lackland Air Force Base, taught occupational therapy, was former president of the Lady Bugs Association and the auxiliary to the State and National Pest Control Association. She worked for years along side her husband, Bill Elo, in their business, Elo Pest Control. She also volunteered at Santa Rosa Children’s Hospital and then helped establish a volunteer program at Villa Rosa. She was a volunteer for 15 years at Manor Care on Briaridge helping with the bingo games, helped deliver mail, and visited with the residents. Winnifred was a very loving and caring person who always put other peoples needs before her own. She will be greatly missed by everyone who knew and loved her. Winnifred was preceded in death by her beloved husband, William I. Elo. She is survived by her daughter, Margaret Sue Settles and husband, Jim of San Antonio, TX; son, George S. Elo and wife Betty of San Antonio, TX; grandchildren, William R., Lisa, and Mary Elo, Linda Sparks, Midge Trammell, Susan Moore and Sharon Whitley; great-grandchildren, Dusty, Tracy, Steven, Taylor, Carrie, Britnee, Shayde, Cooper, Michael, Robert, Kristin and Daniel; and numerous nieces and nephews. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Susan B. Komen Foundation P.O. Box 650309, Dallas, TX 75265-0309 or the Alzheimer’s Association 7400 Louis Pasteur Dr. Ste 200, San Antonio, TX 78229 in her memory.
