“ Dear Anna and Danny,
You probably don't remember me but Heavy was a great influence and the truest love of my life. I only now found out of his demise. I truly loved him, not only as a man who gave me vision but who I loved and love me in return. God gave me the absolute best gift: i.e. Anna, your brother and Danny, your uncle. I have always held him in the highest regard with all the love in my heart.
I send this message with tears in my eyes,
I truly loved him,

“Xavier was such a compassionate person and helped endlessly. He had the best sense of humor and loved work. He was an inspiration to our students at St. Mary's University and always talked highly of the love he had for his own family.

I know that God has preserved the best place for him. His caring ways, so unselfish of giving, and the happiness that you felt with his smile and simply when he just said "Hi".

Yes, he will be very missed but his wings will continue to shine for us. Never will he be forgotten and many prayers to his family. A true meaning of Spirit he was.

With all our love and prayers for him and his family that he loved so much.

“Xavier will never be forgotten. His kindness and smile brightened my day so much. I would say I worked with him at St Mary's but really we just chatted and figured it out. I will miss you my friend.
