“ To my Godmother: You have always been a guiding light that has always been bright, and bold and of course beautiful. My (and my family's prayer's) will be with You and to those your light radiated toward. Although the darkness is evident on this day, so will be your light...although not here, but in a better place... and also never forgotten. Cindy, Trino, Niki & Robert Diaz

“ Compadre Abel, Yvonne and family,

It is with our heavy hearts, to learn the passing of our dear Comadre Delia. How we take for granted the wonderful friendships and relationships of someone so wonderful and beautiful and think they will never leave us. And today, our loss is deep.

Both Compadre Hondo and I are grateful to cherish all the great memories of good times and family times you gave us to be part of with your family sharing among each other.

Comadre Delia had a charm of her own. With a great sense of pride, love and fruits of the spirit she carried it with dignity and honor.

Compadre Abel, You are her "King", Yvonne her "Princess" and her two Grandsons, her "Prince Dimas and Prince Jesse". She now leaves a great path open for each of you to ride the journey of Life until all of you reunite with her.

Our love and deepest condolences to each of you.

May you find peace and comfort.
