

Yep Shui-Chun Lee

August 11, 1929 - April 23, 2013

Mrs. Yep Shui-Chun Lee

Yep Shui-Chun Susan Lee, age 83, went home to her Lord in the early morning hours of Tuesday, April 23, 2013. Born in Toishan, Guangdong Province of China on August 11, 1929, she married a handsome young man, Boi Y. Lee in 1948, from the same area. She later immigrated to the United States, residing in San Antonio since 1955.

She partnered with her husband briefly in a café venture. Then they owned and operated a neighborhood grocery store in the East side of town. She worked long hours at the store and at home, raising three energetic children. She always looked for great deals for her family. Though she knew cultural fashions as well as any other lady, she lived a humble but joyful lifestyle.

Yep Shui Chun trusted in Jesus Christ as Savior and became a member of First Chinese Baptist Church after she was baptized. She enjoyed the fellowship of Toishan-speaking mothers at church and in the community. After she retired, she spent more time growing Chinese vegetables, baking traditional Chinese pastries, viewing Cantonese videos, reading her Chinese Bible and hustling her grandkids in mahjong.

She is survived by her husband, Boi Y. Lee; her children and their spouses: John and Lily Lee, Joanie and Jacques Wong, Jimmy and Lynn Lee; and her grandchildren: Joshua and Daniel Lee, Jeffrey and Jason Wong, Katie, Steven and Christopher Lee and many other nephews, cousins and relatives around the United States, Canada, Hong Kong and China.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in her memory to the Building Fund of First Chinese Baptist Church, 5481 Prue Road, San Antonio, TX 78240. We celebrate her life on Saturday, April 27, 2013, 11:00 AM, Mission Park South, 1700 SE Military Dr. San Antonio, TX 78214.
