“ My Mother, Yolanda, was my best friend. I couldn't tell you how many countless nights she would comfort me when I would call home scared while I was at war multiple times in Iraq and Afghanistan. She would always help me stay focused, when I felt like I was losing it. I can't explain how much I miss her. I love you Mom, and it would take me a life time to tell our story. Thank you for everything you've ever done for me. Your Son Albert...
