

Yolanda Chavera

August 18, 1955 - June 2, 2006

Chavera

On June 2, 2006, after a courageous and spirited battle with cancer, and with her loving family at her side, Yolanda Anthony Chavera was called home to rest with our Lord. Born on August 18, 1955, Yolanda entered this world to proud parents, Andres Anthony Jr. and Olivia Reyes Anthony. A selfless, compassionate, and loving person, Yolanda gave freely of herself to better her family and friends. Yolanda's greatest gift was her role as mother, wife, daughter, and sister. She cherished her two surviving daughters Denise Chavera Martinez wife to George and Erica Chavera, and lived for them. A prouder mother could not be found. Together with her surviving spouse, Albert Anthony Chavera, they created a blessed union of trust and mutual respect that was built on a foundation of 33 years of love. Her first and last thoughts were always of others as even sick, she went to great lengths to comfort those saddened by her disease. We want to extend out deepest gratitude to Dr. Halka, Ethel, and Patty for their tireless efforts in providing Yolanda great care and support during her battle with cancer. We also would like to thank the 10th floor ward at Santa Rosa Hospital for their handling of Yolanda. Special Thanks to Alma for her devotion and personal attention. Proceeding Yolanda's calling from our Father, was her brother, Robert Anthony. Those whose lives' she touched will forever remember Yolanda. She is survived by her sisters: Mary Jane Anthony and Linda Yglesias, her brothers: Jesse Villarreal husband to Amalia and Lee Anthony. Yolanda was blessed with numerous nieces and nephews. Although Yolanda has moved on to better serve our Lord, those who knew and loved her will carry her in their hearts forever.
