“ I will remember Mrs. Cortez not only for her bubbly personality and contagious laugh, but mostly, for the enormous amount of love she had for her daughter, Christina. I am grateful to have spent quality time with such a lovely family. The legacy of Yolanda Cortez is reflected in her daughter's and grandchildren's successes. May she rest in peace and comfort with our Lord in heaven.

“ In 1999 her Aunt Katherine (Katy) Gomez Martinez, my mother, my sister, Maryann Ordonez, her cousin and I drove to San Antonio for a visit with my cousin, Yolanda Cortez for a most memorable week in my birth town. Yolanda, whom i was named after, opened her home for us to stay while we also visited other Pena family. She was such a gracious host and we spent many hours sharing and talking about our whole family. I know she is celebrating another reunion with her favorite Aunt Katy in Heaven. While our hearts grieve her absence, I know we will meet again in Heaven and celebrate once more eternally together...Until then cousin Yolanda have a blessed reunion with your loved ones! YOCOUSIN,
YOLANDA WILLIS

“ Our prayers and thoughts are with the family. We know that Yoli will no longer suffer, and our memory of her will be one of a sister growing up together during our formative years and now, in our golden years.
