“ The news felt like a wracking ball to my heart , knowing that you are gone. But know you will never be forgotten. I know for a fact that I will never forget you and how much you've impacted me. As I think about memory lane, I remembered all the good times we've shared, and I can't help but miss you. I promise to always keep the tradition alive and all the things that you have taught me to become a better, loving, strong and humble person just like you. You will dearly be missed. See you later alligator.
