Yolanda Ortega Fisher a grandmother 1st, mother, friend then wife, that's the kind of woman she was. She loved her grandkids and that's what she lived for. She was a child at heart, with her collection of stuff animals and dolls surrounding her bedroom. A friend to talk to on the long drive home from work. Even though she didn't have much to give, she always gave 100% of her love and that's her legacy. Her legacy was and will always be about family. If she could, she would get her house back on Demya street where she lived for 30yrs. and fill it with family. We love you grandma, mother, wife, and friends.
