

Yolanda Canales Gonzalez

October 1, 1931 - September 20, 2025

Yolanda Canales González was born on October 1, 1931 in Waco, Texas. She went to be with the Lord on September 20, 2025. She is preceded in death by her parents, Rafael and Aurora Canales, her husband Everardo González Sr, her son Everardo González Jr, her brothers, Rafael Jr Argelio, and her sister Yadira Canales. Yolanda is survived by her daughter Yolanda M González, her son Rafael (Andrea), her granddog Sadie, her sister Leticia Canales Berlanga, nieces Leticia Berlanga Villarreal, Laura Berlanga Gallegos (Diego), her nephews Rodolfo Berlanga (Laura), grandnephews, Javier Alejandro Villarreal, Julian Axel Villarreal, Diego Antonio Gallegos, and grandnieces Paloma Gisela Villarreal and Sofia Araceli Gallegos.

Yolanda attended St. Teresa's Academy, graduating May 24, 1951. She continued her education at Baylor University in Waco, Texas, where she studied Business Administration. After school, she began working at First National Bank.

Yolanda traveled extensively throughout Mexico with her parents and siblings. On one of those trips she met Everardo, who would become her husband on December 30, 1956. They were together for more than 65 years.

After her wedding, she and Everardo moved to Puebla, Mexico, where they raised their family. Yolanda was a small business owner of Super San Carlos Grocery, as well as a homemaker. After 40 years in Puebla, the family moved to San Antonio Texas. Yolanda became a well-known and loved cashier at Souper Salad for 20 years.

Yolanda loved going shopping, loved collecting many things, loved working in the garden, loved family dinners (her favorites were Chiles en Nogada and ice cream) and spending time with her family.

She will be dearly missed by her friends and family.
