Tribute Wall

“ I loved Yolanda very much. She was my spiritual sister and door to door partner. She would console me whenever I would vent to her. She told me I was her spiritual daughter so I'd like to think of her as a mother. I take comfort in knowing she is not suffering and she is only asleep in death. She was spiritually strong and had such zeal. A really brave woman. I'll miss her voice when she would answer at our meetings. I think of her often and hoped she would be at our international convention this weekend. I know I will see her in paradise. I will pray for her family for strength and much comfort.
