Yolanda Rita Ibarra

May 22, 1935 - December 15, 2017

Yolanda Rita Ibarra is once again reunited with our Lord and her family. Yolanda was preceded in death by her parents, Jose and Herlinda Ibarra, her sisters, Herminia Ibarra and Herlinda Rodriguez, and her beloved dog, Chiquito.

Yolanda is survived by her sisters and caregivers, Olga Erlewein and Lilia Gonzalez, brothers, Jose M. Ibarra (Mary Ellen) and Jesse Ibarra (Nancy), brother-in-law, Elmo J. Rodriguez, Sr., uncle, Jesse Vidales and many nieces, nephews, grandnieces, grandnephews, and cousins.

Yolanda was a pure, happy and faithful soul. She was happiest sitting on her recliner and watching westerns or cooking shows with her dog by her side. Several generations grew up with her always enjoying her child-like nature. Her faith is something that never wavered. She never doubted that those who had gone before her were in heaven with Jesus. Yolanda faced death with tremendous courage and in her final days often repeated the phrase, "I feel better now."

During the six years after her mother died, Yolanda continued to live life to the fullest. Her life included road trips to Brownsville, Padre Island, Killeen and even a flight to Dallas. She attended weddings, parties, movies, football games and concerts. Often times when sitting in her recliner, she would be cheerfully talking with no one in the room. When asked who she was speaking to her reply was simple, "los angelitos."

Everyone has a special memory or story about Yolanda. Share your stories with each other and keep the memories close to your heart. We will truly miss our special Angel.
