“ Yolanda was a lifetime neighbor for the Gonzalez family. Both families spent many holidays and special occasions together. Yolanda was always an instrument of love. She shared her home with open arms. I remember as a child going over and spending the nights with her daughter Lupe. We had so much fun and she always always made us feel welcomed and encouraged fun! Her life was not empty. It was full of joy, love and a passions for family. May her memories last a lifetime in each of her family's life.

“ Everything flourished around Nana. All of her plants, her cats, and all of our family. When I was little she made the world feel so big. I remember the hikes, the movies, and her visits. At nights she would smell like eucalyptus and whisper her blessings. This would bring a wave of calm and safety. Even today, I miss scent of Vicks and her hurried and mysterious prayers. Her absence is felt. I will miss her dearly. it's a strange feeling for her to be gone but I'm sure she has peace now.

“ What to say about Tia Nana, no words can express my feelings for her. She left me with so many beautiful memories. Always smiling, always laughing, taking all of to the zoo and park on the bus. She gave so much love to everyone, opened her heart and home to all. She treated everyone like family. She taught me so much. She will be greatly missed. Rest in peace my beautiful Nana. ALWAYS ON MY MIND, FOREVER IN MY HEART ❤️

“ Our sincere condolences to the entire Martinez family. Our heartfelt prayers are with you all during this most difficult time. Although we never met Yolanda, we felt a connection with her because of the many, many times Ana shared stories and memories of Yolanda (her mom) with us. We regret that we never had the chance to meet this wonderful lady in person, but we are forever grateful that our dear friend (a.k.a. "lil sis") Ana had such a magnificent person for a mom. G-d's blessings and healing.
